

SEMESTER 6, MODULE 4	VOLUME HORAIRE
Citizenship in Language Education	45
OBJECTIFS: The course provides an overview of the role citizenship plays in language education. It guides students to go beyond the teaching of English for its own sake to cover aspects such as values, engagement, community etc.
DESCRIPTIFS: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Introduction</li> <li>• Role of civics</li> <li>• Values</li> <li>• Engagement</li> <li>• Community service</li> <li>• Role of NGO</li> </ul> References Required: 1) Gearon, L. (2007) A Practical Guide to Teaching Citizenship in the Secondary School. London: Routledge 2) Byram, M. (2008) From Foreign Language Education to Education for Intercultural Citizenship: Essays and Reflections. Clevedon: Multilingual Matters Recommended: 1) Packham, C. (2008) Active Citizenship and Community Learning. Exeter: Learning Matters 2) Alred, G.; Byram, M.; and Fleming, M. (2006) Education for intercultural citizenship: concepts and comparisons. Buffalo, N.Y.: Multilingual Matters.
EVALUATION: Contrôles continus 50%, contrôle final 50%	